

Update from Parish Council meeting held on 8 January 2018:

- Reports were received from PCSO Lorraine Kavanagh and District Councillor Jessica Carrington both are available on our website.
- At the request of the Parish Council Wakefield Council Electoral Services will be carrying out a review of the Polling Station at the Community Centre.
- Estate Boards – A number of estate agency boards which had been installed on grass verges around the village were reported to Wakefield Council. An Environment Officer had spoken to the agencies concerned and issued Fixed Penalty Notices for the offence and given guidance for further installations.
- Planning Permission has been applied for to install a new Notice Board at the Pavilion.
- John Gully's Grave a site meeting is due to be held with an Iron work restoration specialist to look at the railings to find out what work will be involved in their renovation.
- Hesse Beck – a site meeting will be held to discuss this area.