

Question:

What are the Parish Council doing about the travellers on Carr Bridge Playing Field?

Answer:

We would like to reassure our community that the relevant action was taken last night, in contacting and logging with Wakefield Council and the Police. The correct and proper process is in progress, which is being supported by our Ackworth Parish Councillors and Wakefield District Councillors who are all working collectively to resolve.