

Question:

Low Ackworth Community Centre. Could you please tell me who the building was acquired from, when, and who owns it? Kind regards

Answer:

Thank you for your email.

The Low Ackworth Community Centre is owned and the responsibility of Low Ackworth Community Association who are a registered Charity within our village.

They would be better placed to provide the information you require; I have included the secretary's email should you wish to contact them further.

Please let us know if there is anything further we can assist you with.

Many Thanks
