

Question:

Some time ago, we were advised that an improved footpath to Fitzwilliam Railway Station had been given the go-ahead. What is the current status of this project over a year later?

Answer:

Thank you for your enquiry, I am aware from District Councillors that this project is now underway and is being called 'The Green Highway' it is a Wakefield District Council led initiative, which I am sure they would welcome sharing more information with you if you'd like to get in touch with them. I have listed details below as to who could tell you more.
