Appendix 1 – Community Sports Meeting Notes

Ackworth Sports Meeting Report - 02/06/2026

APC attendees: Cllr Maiden, Cllr Bland, Clerk

It was noted that Cllr Bell was asked to join as the Chair of Amenities by Cllrs Maiden and Bland. Cllr Bell had been in attendance to the Personnel meeting scheduled before the sports meeting and accepted the invitation.

APC Apologies: Cllr Moore

Club Representatives: Ackworth Jaguars, Ackworth Juniors, Ackworth Tennis Club.

Club Apologies: Ackworth Cricket Club, Ackworth Runners.

An overview of club challenges was provided:

- Ackworth Tennis shared news on termination of current facility
- Ackworth Jaguars shared challenges with lack of winter facilities within the village and after match venue facilities and having to use facilities outside of the village
- Ackworth Juniors shared lack of winter facilities within the village

Meeting Discussion Points:

- Requirement of floodlights for winter use at Carr Bridge – all agreed portable would be suitable and that the Clerk would explore funding – Rugby /Football
- Winter pitch conditions were discussed overall
- Brackenhill was discussed as an unused open space – Potential for Tennis
- The Pavilion building was discussed and feedback shared that the building does not currently meet the needs of the sports users. A suggestion would be to convert the field facing window in the community room to a serving hatch. Clerk to explore funding – Rugby/Football
- Lack of winter facilities – a discussion took place regarding Ackworth schools plans for 4G pitch development
- Ackworth Quarries was discussed for holding sports social events – parking was highlighted and discussion of future exploration of increased parking using grass matting – Rugby/Football
- All agreed a land map across the village may be helpful to best understand future sports area opportunities

All agreed the meeting had been useful to network and that a longer-term focus is needed to improve sports facilities within Ackworth.

Clerk advised a report would be issued to the next Village Amenities meeting on the 27th July for consideration of recommendations for Council review in September 2026.
